May 2 Annual Meeting

Digging Up History: Artifacts from the Outhouses of Pinole

Veteran artifact collector Sonny Jackson will show us an assortment of his local collectibles and postcards, providing insights on how and where to find these objects.

The public is invited to this FREE event on Friday, May 2, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in conference rooms 2A and 2B of the Kaiser Permanente Medical Office Building, 1301 Pinole Valley Road. Refreshments will be served.

Sonny's exploits have yielded many interesting items, some of which will be on display at the meeting. He's been a generous supporter of the society, sharing with us his voluminous postcard collection, one of which, a scene of the Four Corners taken around 1900, is displayed above.

This will also be our annual meeting, at which PHS members vote for members of the board of directors.

WE'RE BACK AT THE PINOLE FARMERS' MARKET

The Pinole Historical Society is back at the Pinole Farmers' Market.

Our sixth season begins Saturday, April 5. We'll be selling our books, postcards, greeting cards, magnets, and American flags every other Saturday through the end of the year.

Please stop by and say hello — and take home a free newsletter.

The Pinole Historical Society promotes awareness and appreciation of history through preservation and education, and chronicles the city's heritage for current and future generations.

PHS adds new Arcadia book to list of offerings

The PHS is offering the latest Arcadia "Images of America" title in this region, Maritime Contra Costa County, for sale at the Pinole Farmers' Market and via mail order.

Written by Contra Costa Historic Landmark Advisory Committee vice president Carol A. Jensen, the book presents the county's vibrant maritime history through images drawn from the Library of Congress, California State Library, San Francisco Historical Photograph Collection, Contra Costa County archives, and important local historical society collections.

Herein we experience in vintage photographs this region's impact on significant California events. From these piers were shipped wines to challenge French viticultural supremacy, grains destined to make Guinness beer great, and soldiers embarked for the World War II Pacific theater.

Maritime Contra Costa County provides a fresh perspective on the intertwined histories of San Francisco and its "other coast."

You may order it from the PHS using the form on the last page of this newsletter.

About the author: Carol A. Jensen is a native daughter of the Delta and East Contra Costa County. She is a history graduate of the University of California at Santa Barbara. She is a member of the California Historical Society, Contra Costa County Historical Society, East Contra Costa Historical Society, and John Marsh Historic Trust.

PHS VIDEOS ON CITY OF PINOLE WEBSITE

Miss one of our history programs on Pinole Community TV? Don't despair. The city's website has a dedicated section devoted to PINOLE HISTORY on its "Videos Online" page.

You can view the numerous PHS programs right on your computer. Go to the city's website www.ci.pinole.ca.us/about/videos.html and scroll down to PINOLE HISTORY.

You'll find our interviews, Veterans Day programs, George Vincent's two walking tours of historic downtown Pinole, and the very fine PCTV-produced, 12-part series based on the Historic Walking Tour brochure. It's great TV!

PHS SEEKING FAMILY FILMS FOR HISTORICAL ARCHIVE

Got film? The Pinole Historical Society is embarking on a major project to archive the city's history. We want to establish a permanent, digitized collection of Pinole's history.

Do you have film of past Holy Ghost parades, Pinole Valley High School Homecoming parades, Memorial Day or July 4 parades?

How about important athletic events, such as a high-school football, basketball, baseball, softball, or volleyball games?

Perhaps you have film of an important event that took place in Fernandez Park, or a ribbon cutting or an event that has a place in Pinole's history — such as the 1958 flood?

We're looking for any video or film you have — VHS, Beta, camcorder, DV tape, 8mm, Super 8mm, 16mm, 35mm, motion picture.

Nearly everyone has taken home movies. That makes everyone who has taken film a historian.

We want to collect, digitize, catalog, and preserve old movies on DVD (and whatever formats are to come) to exhibit, educate, and entertain.

The PHS will share these videos on a film archive that we will establish, similar to the The Pioneers Film Archive on YouTube created by the California Pioneers of Santa Clara (www.youtube.com/sccpioneers).

Film connects with the past in a unique way. It's immersive, educational, and entertaining. It's a way to get young people interested in history.

Got film? Please contact us at info@pinolehistoricalsociety.org. We'll return your film; we just want to borrow and digitize it.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE SEEKING STORIES FROM LESBIAN, GAY, BISEXUAL, AND TRANSGENDER WORLD WAR II CIVILIANS

Rosie the Riveter/WWII Home Front National Historical Park will preserve the stories and artifacts associated with the civilian American World War II Home Front.

Since 2000, when the park was established, many stories and artifacts relating to life in the 1940s have been donated. However, there are still many aspects of the civilian WWII home front that the park would like to discover and preserve, including the experiences of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) people.

Likely due to the prejudice and severe legal, economic, and social consequences of revealing sexual orientation in the 1940s, the park's museum does not have any information about LGBT civilians.

"It's urgent that we collect these and other under-represented stories, since many people from this generation have passed away without documenting their contributions or experiences from World War II," says Lead Park Ranger Elizabeth Tucker.

The park is partnering with the Rosie the Riveter Trust, which supports the park's efforts to document LGBT stories, and consulting with public historian Donna Graves to produce a traveling exhibit in 2015.

A confidential phone line has been set up: (510) 232-5050 x6631. Please call this number if you have any information about LGBT civilian life in the 1940s.

On March 24 at 3 p.m., the National Park Service and the Rosie the Riveter Trust will partner with the Lesbian Social Club in Rossmoor to host an event at this large retirement community in Walnut Creek to gather LGBT stories. The author of "Wax," a fictional account of two lesbian workers in the Richmond Kaiser Shipyards, will be the keynote speaker.

To attend, please RSVP to (510) 232-5050 x6631.

PHS SELLING EMBROIDERED AMERICAN FLAGS

We have a box full of made-in-the-USA American flags, with beautifully embroidered stars and sewn stripes.

These durable flags, resistant to fading and fraying, are made of Dupont Solarmax nylon fabric. They look great and fly well in low wind.

They have brass grommets attached to heavy canvas pole ends and combine lustrous beauty with superior wearing quality and excellent fly ability.

These flags are made by the Valley Forge Flag Company, and are directly comparable in both quality and durability to flags sold by leading home improvement and retail stores for up to $30. This size is suitable for flagpoles from 15 to 20 feet.

These flags are only $25, including sales tax. We'll deliver if you live in West Contra Costa County. If not, we will ship the flag to you for an additional $5. We also have flag poles for $5. We do not ship the poles.

To order, send a check payable to the Pinole Historical Society to P.O. Box 285, Pinole, 94564

We also sell these flags at our Pinole Farmers' Market booth.
