PINOLE GARDEN CLUB KEEPS THE CITY IN FULL BLOOM

Small towns are all about community.

From Pinole's early fraternal and religious groups in the first half of the 20th century, to the service organizations that have existed for 75 to 100 or more years, these groups, and the people who carry out the good work that they do, form the identity of our community.

When it comes to beautifying the city, no one can hold a pruning shear next to the Pinole Garden Club.

Its mission is to promote and encourage the knowledge and appreciation of gardening among members and to take an active part in civic beautification and the protection and the conservation of our natural resources.

Since its establishment in 1956, the Pinole Garden Club has more than lived its mission. Its activities include Arbor Day tree planting; decorating the Christmas Tree and setting up the Candy Cane Contest at the Pinole Library; performing a skit, "A Tree Grows in Pinole," for local schools; doing bi-monthly garden therapy at a local nursing home; and fundraisers.

Another project is sprucing up the Jessie Howe Clark Memorial Garden on Tennyson Avenue by the Pinole Public Safety Facility and City Hall. Jessie was Pinole's historian and Poet Laureate years ago. Club members will have the tree pruned and clean up the area under the tree, working in conjunction with the City of Pinole.

The club has also weeded, pruned, and periodically replanted the garden area surrounding the City of Pinole Welcome Wall, near the entrance to I-80 on Pinole Valley Road, to keep it looking beautiful.

And, not coincidentally, the Pinole Historical Society is indebted to the garden club for lovingly taking care of the Faria House rose garden (photo above), which will one day be the entrance to the Pinole History Museum.

The members have deadheaded, pruned, and maintained the rose bushes every month since 2013.

The club gives back to the community in other ways, too. Each year the club awards two scholarships to deserving students for their horticultural studies at a local college.

Through its participation in these and other local projects, the Pinole Garden Club contributes to the improvement of our city and our environment. Their members embody the meaning of "community."

SEPTEMBER 8 PHS MEETING

FINDING THE BAY BRIDGE TROLL

The historic bridges of the Bay Area and popular folklore surrounding those bridges — with an emphasis on the Bay Bridge Troll — will be the subject of noted author John Robinson's presentation at the September 8 Pinole Historical Society meeting.

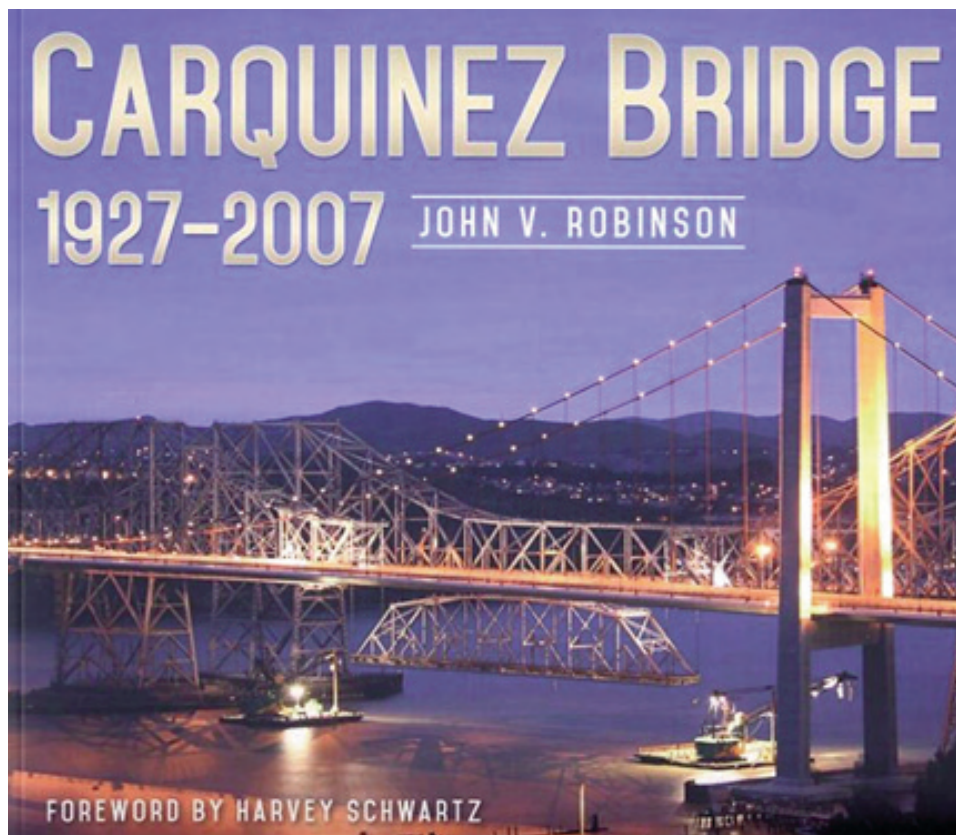

The program, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in conference rooms 2A and 2B of the Kaiser Permanente Medical Office Building, 1301 Pinole Valley Road, is FREE to PHS members and the public. Refreshments will be served.

Robinson's fascination with bridges has led him to write eight books, including "Spanning the Strait: Building the Alfred Zampa Memorial Bridge," "Building the Benicia-Martinez Bridge," and "Bridging the Tacoma Narrows." His latest book, "Bay Bridge Troll," will be published in November.

The Bay Bridge Troll is an 18-inch steel figure, complete with a spud wrench, that was welded to the Eastern span of the original San Francisco Bay Bridge. It was replaced by a newer version in 2013 once the construction of the new Bay Bridge was completed.

The Bay Bridge Troll.

John Robinson's book on the Carquinez Bridge

The creator of the original troll, Bill Roan, is a blacksmith-turned-artist who lived near the Bay Bridge.

In 1989, a section of the Bay Bridge collapsed during the Loma-Prieta earthquake that rocked the Bay Area. The bridge was closed for several weeks while repairs were made.

When the repairs to the bridge were nearly complete, ironworkers smuggled the small metal troll onto the bridge and welded it permanently to a steel beam on the north side of the bridge.

This unusual topping out ceremony became the subject of much curiosity and rumor around the Bay Area.

The troll was placed where motorists on the bridge would never see it. It was on the north side of the outside rail, where only maintenance workers and ironworkers ever venture.

GEORGE VINCENT'S BOOK ABOUT THE EARLY SCHOOLS OF PINOLE HAS ARRIVED

ORDER School Bells and Ink Wells TODAY!

Pinole Historical Society co-founder and historian George Vincent's long-awaited book, "School Bells and Ink Wells: a History of the Early Schools of Pinole, 1865-1968," has been published and is for sale.

The 124-page book, featuring more than 150 photos, some never-before seen, chronicles the history of the Fitzgerald Ranch School (1865-1886), Plaza School (1886-1906), and Pinole-Hercules School #1 (1906-1966).

The book is filled with stories and amusing anecdotes, and anyone who went to school in Pinole will treasure this fond memory of their early education.

The book brings to light the workings and people that made the Pinole-Hercules Union School District the envy of surrounding townships.

Hill School alumni are fiercely loyal to their "green school" that stood atop Samuel Street in Pinole until 1968. There is a shared pride of camaraderie understood only by those who bore the trials of the daily uphill climb to the creaking stairs and dark halls haunted by the strict stares of lurking teachers.

If you are interested in purchasing the book ($30, including sales tax and postage), please fill out the order form below and mail it to George Vincent. He will mail the book to you.

PINOLE'S HISTORY IS ON PINOLE COMMUNITY TV

Four historical videos have added to the Pinole Community TV website: www.ci.pinole.ca.us/about/videos.html

- Pinole Historical Society – School Bells and Ink Wells (Old Pinole Schools)
- Pinole Historical Society – The Presidential Rosies (Rosie the Riveters in Washington, D.C.)
- Pinole Historical Society – A Flood of Memories (Floods in Pinole)

- Maritime Contra Costa County – A history of the maritime industry in the county.

These additions bring to 35 the number of Pinole-history videos on the city's website. We thank Dave Snell and Stewart McCale of the PCTV staff for their good work in getting these videos online.

And, we thank Bob Kopp, who recorded many of these events for the society.

Miss one of our history programs on PCTV? Don't despair. The city's website has a dedicated section devoted to Pinole's history on its "Videos Online" page. You can view the numerous PHS programs right on your computer.

Go to the city's website www.ci.pinole.ca.us/about/videos.html and scroll down to PINOLE HISTORY.

You'll find our quarterly programs, interviews, Veterans Day programs, George Vincent's two walking tours of historic downtown Pinole, and the very fine, PCTV-produced, 12-part series based on the society's Historic Walking Tour brochure.

Also there are recorded interviews with several prominent Pinole citizens, including Ed LeFebvre, Charlotte (Fernandez) Shea, former fire chief Alex Clark, and former mayors Jack Meehan and Tom Cutino.

Flag Holidays

Every year we see more American flags being displayed for community and special events.

On June 14, 1777, the Second Continental Congress passed the Flag Resolution which stated: "Resolved, that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Francis Hopkinson, of New Jersey, a naval flag designer and a signer of the Declaration of Independence, designed the 1777 flag.

The original flag has been modified 26 times and was unchanged with its 48 stars for 47 years, beginning with Arizona's and New Mexico's admittance to the Union on July 4, 1912. On January 3, 1959, when Alaska was admitted to the Union, the number of stars increased to 49. On August 21, 1959, when Hawaii was admitted to the Union, the flag showed 50 stars.

Flag holidays include:

- New Year's Day (Jan. 1)
- Inauguration Day (Jan. 20)
- Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday (Third Monday in January)
- Lincoln's Birthday (Feb. 12)
- Presidents Day (Third Monday in February)
- Washington's Birthday (February 22)
- Easter Sunday
- Army Day (April 6)
- National Day of Prayer (First Thursday in May)
- V-E Day (May 8)
- Mother's Day (Second Sunday in May)
- Peace Officers Memorial Day (May 15; half-staff all day)
- Armed Forces Day (Third Saturday in May)
- Memorial Day (Last Monday in May; half-staff until noon)
- D-Day (June 6)
- Flag Day (June 14)
- Father's Day (Third Sunday in June)
- Independence Day (July 4)
- Korean War Veterans Day (July 27)
- V-J Day (September 2)
- Labor Day (First Monday in September)
- Patriot Day (September 11; half staff all day)
- Constitution Day (September 17)
- Gold Star Mothers Day (September 27)
- Columbus Day (Oct. 12)
- Navy Day (October 27)
- Election Day (First Tuesday in November)
- Veterans Day (Nov. 11)
- Thanksgiving Day (Fourth Thursday in November)
- Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day (December 7; half staff all day)
- Christmas Day (Dec. 25)

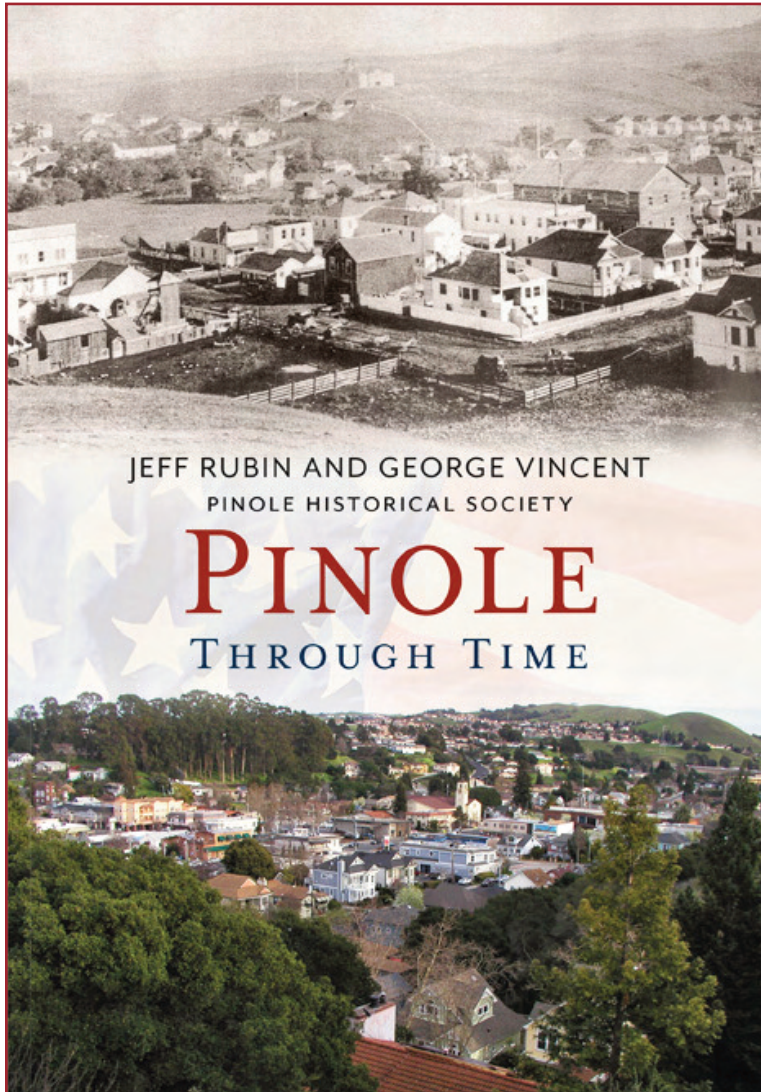

Other flag holidays include Inauguration Day (every four years), election days, state and local holidays, Admission Day, and others proclaimed by the President of the United States.
