WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9

PHS TO PRESENT PROGRAM AT PINOLE SENIOR CENTER

The Pinole Historical Society will take its “museum on wheels” to the Pinole Senior Center on Wednesday, March 9, for a 1:30 p.m. program during the center’s monthly membership meeting.

Presenting “Things Never Change in Pinole ... Or Do They?” will be PHS co-founder George Vincent, the society’s historian, current vice president, and co-author of the recently published book “Pinole Through Time.”

The program will feature some never-before-seen photos (at least not by anyone who is alive today!), and stories based on photos from the book, which features old photos — some dating back to the 19th century — and current photos showing the same locations.

The program is open to all Pinole Senior Center members.

PHS essay contest encourages students to explore city’s history

The results in the seventh annual Pinole Historical Society Essay Contest are about to be tabulated, with students from schools throughout the city writing 250-word essays on the topic, “Describe three of your favorite historical places and/or events in Pinole.”

Students from Ellerhorst, Collins, Shannon, and Stewart elementary schools, Pinole Middle School, Pinole Valley High School, and St. Joseph school were invited to participate.

Essays will be collected on March 14 and awards at all schools will be presented the week of June 6. Mayor Roy Swearingen will present the awards, which will include certificates to the authors of the best essays in each grade, and gifts to the Grand Prize winners.

In memoriam

REBECCA GUTIERREZ

September 12, 1940 — January 18, 2016

Rebecca Gutierrez, a lifetime member of the Pinole Historical Society and a former PHS vice president, died January 18 in Las Vegas. She was 75.

Rebecca and another PHS lifetime member, Gail Snyder-Von Aspern, were responsible for setting up the Pinole history displays at Pinole City Hall.

Rebecca was formerly Becky Kanalz, an older movie actress with a host of movies to her credit. She was also a U.S. Navy nurse and then an RN in the private sector for the remainder of that career until she retired nine years ago.

She moved to Las Vegas and decided to get back into the movies. At her death she had just finished filming a movie with Nicholas Cage.

LOVIE L. AMOS

September 6, 1920 — February 10, 2016

Lovie Amos, a lifetime member of the Pinole Historical Society, died February 10. She was 95.

Lovie had lived in Pinole since 1953. She was the only woman on a seven-person crew at one of the Richmond shipyards during WWII. She was an employee of the East Bay Municipal Utility District for 36 years and was the first woman appointed by the EBMUD Board of Directors as a division manager.

She was most proud of being named among the top 400 women in the country listed in Who's Who of American Women.

PHS WILL BE BACK AT FARMERS' MARKET IN APRIL

The Pinole Historical Society will be back at its booth at the Pinole Farmers' Market beginning April 2 and will be there every other week through December.

We thank you for your many years of support, and look forward to seeing you.

The Pinole Historical Society promotes awareness and appreciation of history through preservation and education, and chronicles the city's heritage for current and future generations.

FRIENDS OF THE PINOLE LIBRARY

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 6:60-7:30 P.M.

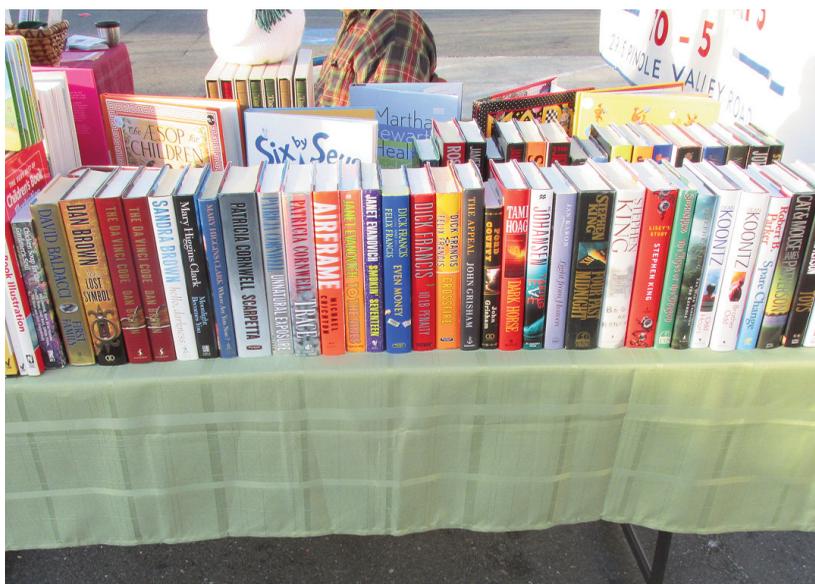

Presented by the Friends of the Pinole Library, the East Bay Vivarium Traveling Reptile Show will be at the Pinole Library on Wednesday, March 2, from 6:30 to 7:30 pm.

Come see, touch, and learn about reptiles. The program includes tarantulas, frogs, and a giant monitor lizard (photo, right).

The show is both educational and entertaining.

Membership drive

The Friends of the Pinole Library membership drive continues at the Pinole Farmers' Market (dates below). The organization is in need of volunteers to do some lifting during setup and tear down, as well as help with the biannual book sales.

FRIENDS OF THE PINOLE LIBRARY AT THE FARMERS' MARKET

MARCH 12 AND 26
Pinole Farmers' Market

The Friends of the Pinole Library displays selected books at the Pinole Farmers' Market from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on alternate Saturdays. This popular display offers many different genre of books, accessories, CDs, and DVDs, and varies from week to week.

PHS ENROLLED IN S.H.A.R.E.S. PROGRAM

The Pinole Historical Society has enrolled in Save Mart's S.H.A.R.E.S (Supporting Humanities, Arts, Recreation, Education and Sports) program, a fund-raising program offered free to more than 8,500 schools, groups, and organizations by Save Mart and its affiliated stores (Lucky Supermarkets, FoodMaxx and S-Mart Foods).

Each year, Save Mart sets aside a reserve of $4.5 million specifically to benefit those who have enrolled in S.H.A.R.E.S. It's Save Mart's way of giving back to the communities it calls home.

Using this card on qualified purchases made at the above stores in California and Nevada will earn the Pinole Historical Society up to 3% of qualified purchases annually.

Pinole Historical Society S.H.A.R.E.S. cards are available at the PHS booth at the Pinole Farmers' Market and at our five yearly membership programs. Or, please request a S.H.A.R.E.S. card via e-mail (info@pinolehistoricalsociety.org) and we will mail one to you. Please remember to include your street address.

PHS PROGRAMS SET FOR MAY, SEPTEMBER

We have several interesting programs lined up this year. Our focus will be not only on Pinole history, but the history of the region. We have scheduled programs for our May 13 and September 9 meetings. We'll announce our November 4 program as we move closer to that date.

Here are our scheduled programs all from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in conference rooms 2A and 2B of the Kaiser Permanente Medical Office Building, 1301 Pinole Valley Road:

May 13: The Contra Costa County Historical Society (CCCHS) operates a major archival collection documenting the history of the county at its Contra Costa History Center at 724 Escobar Street, in Martinez. CCCHS representatives will describe the collection, consisting of letters, diaries, manuscripts of writings, legal records, photographs, maps, newspapers, periodicals, and books.

September 9: Beverly Lane, former mayor of Danville and curator of the Museum of the San Ramon Valley, will speak about the history of the San Ramon Valley, which has many parallels to the history of West Contra Costa County. Beverly is the author of the recently published book, San Ramon Chrinocles: Stories of Bygone Days.

March 1-31: PINOLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY LIBRARY EXHIBITS

The Pinole Historical Society has two exhibits at the Pinole Library. "Pinole ... Then and Now" features photos from the society's archives of buildings that existed at the turn of the 20th century and recent photos of buildings on those sites today. This joins our permanent exhibit featuring artifacts, photos, and memorabilia from Pinole's history.

For more information on Pinole Historical Society activities and the history of Pinole, visit our website at www.PinoleHistoricalSociety.org.

PHS VIDEOS ON CITY OF PINOLE WEBSITE

Miss one of our history programs on Pinole Community TV? Don't despair. The city's website has a dedicated section devoted to PINOLE HISTORY on its "Videos Online" page.

You can view the numerous PHS programs right on your computer. Go to the city's website www.ci.pinole.ca.us/about/videos.html and scroll down to PINOLE HISTORY.

You'll find our interviews, Veterans Day programs, George Vincent's two walking tours of historic downtown Pinole, and the very fine PCTV-produced, 12-part series based on the Historic Walking Tour brochure. It's great TV!

We thank Bob Kopp, who recorded most of these events for the society.

Flag Holidays

Every year we see more American flags being displayed for community and special events.

On June 14, 1777, the Second Continental Congress passed the Flag Resolution which stated: "Resolved, that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Francis Hopkinson, of New Jersey, a naval flag designer and a signer of the Declaration of Independence, designed the 1777 flag.

The original flag has been modified 26 times and was unchanged with its 48 stars for 47 years, beginning with Arizona's and New Mexico's admittance to the Union on July 4, 1912. On January 3, 1959, when Alaska was admitted to the Union, the number of stars increased to 49. On August 21, 1959, when Hawaii was admitted to the Union, the flag showed 50 stars.

Flag holidays include:

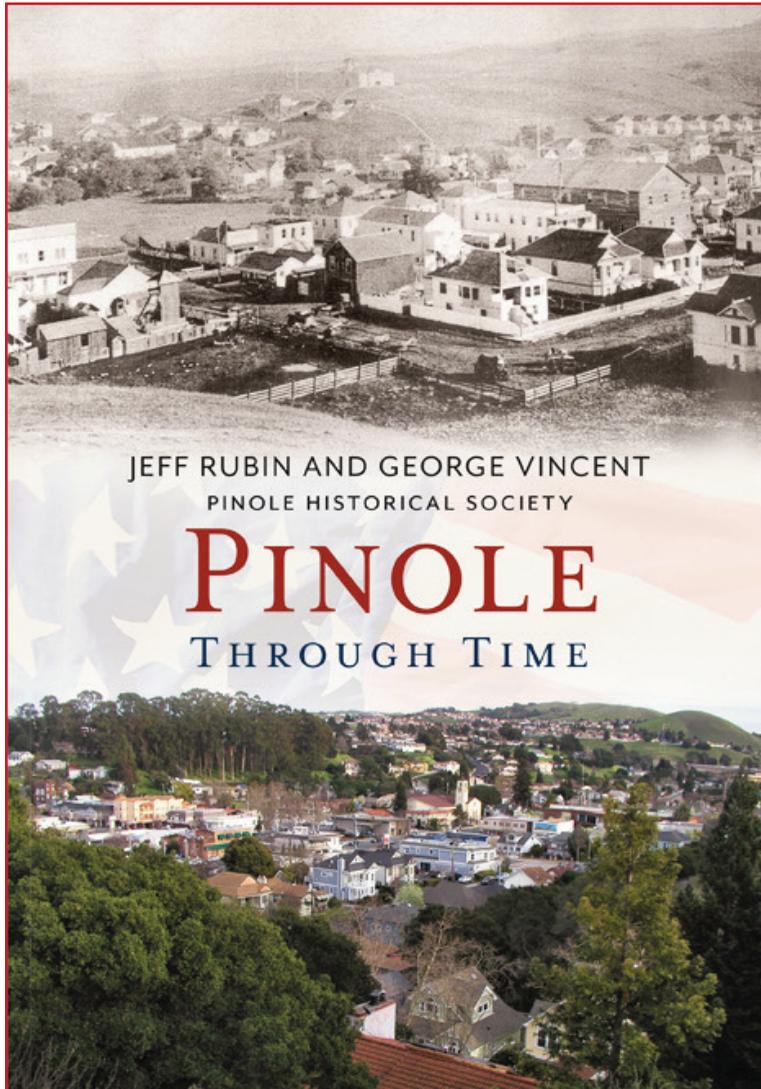

- New Year's Day (Jan. 1)
- Inauguration Day (Jan. 20)
- Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday (Third Monday in January)
- Lincoln's Birthday (Feb. 12)
- Presidents Day (Third Monday in February)
- Washington's Birthday (February 22)
- Easter Sunday
- Army Day (April 6)
- National Day of Prayer (First Thursday in May)
- V-E Day (May 8)
- Mother's Day (Second Sunday in May)
- Peace Officers Memorial Day (May 15; half-staff all day)
- Armed Forces Day (Third Saturday in May)
- Memorial Day (Last Monday in May; half-staff until noon)
- D-Day (June 6)
- Flag Day (June 14)
- Father's Day (Third Sunday in June)
- Independence Day (July 4)
- Korean War Veterans Day (July 27)
- V-J Day (September 2)
- Labor Day (First Monday in September)
- Patriot Day (September 11; half staff all day)
- Constitution Day (September 17)
- Gold Star Mothers Day (September 27)
- Columbus Day (Oct. 12)
- Navy Day (October 27)
- Election Day (First Tuesday in November)
- Veterans Day (Nov. 11)
- Thanksgiving Day (Fourth Thursday in November)
- Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day (December 7; half staff all day)
- Christmas Day (Dec. 25)

Other flag holidays include Inauguration Day (every four years), election days, state and local holidays, Admission Day, and others proclaimed by the President of the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO MARITIME NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK LAUNCHES ONLINE SALE OF PARK PASSES

Visitors can pre-purchase passes and store them on their mobile devices

The National Park Service (NPS) has launched a pilot program to make entrance passes for San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park (SAFR) available for sale through visitors' smartphones.

Visitors to the Park now have the convenience of purchasing — at no additional cost — SAFR annual and seven-day entrance passes using a free mobile app (the app currently runs on iOS, and will soon be available for Android). The app is available from the park's website at www.nps.gov/safr/planyourvisit/fees.htm.

"Today, many of San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park's potential visitors, especially Millennials — the next generation of national park visitors — conduct business on mobile devices," said Superintendent Kevin Hendricks. "We want to make it as easy to experience your national park as buying a cup of coffee!"

The park's authorized pass vendor, Viply LLC, has created an app that allows park visitors to pre-purchase an entrance pass and skip the long ticketing lines by quickly scanning a Quick Response (QR) code at the park's entrance booth.

The electronic version of the seven-day park pass or park annual pass is also convenient — it can't get lost or misplaced because it resides on the visitor's own mobile device. The pass is non-transferrable, non-refundable, non-replaceable and should be available on visitors' smartphones at all times while in the park.

Hercules at the San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park.

The annual entrance pass fee for San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park is $40, and seven-day entrance passes are $10. Children 15 years or younger accompanied by an adult do not need an entry ticket. Entrance fees are also not charged to holders of the America the Beautiful pass series including – the National Parks and Federal Recreational Lands Annual, Senior, Access, Every Kid in a Park 4th Grade, or Military Pass.

"We are excited to be working with the San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park and provide a convenient, hassle-free app enabling visitors to access park passes in advance, by-pass ticketing lines and immediately enjoy all of the park's amenities," said John Masterson, co-founder and president of Viply.

San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park is located at the west end of Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco. The park includes a fleet of National Historic Landmark ships, a visitor center, a maritime museum, a public maritime research center, and the Aquatic Park Historic District.

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the National Park Service in 2016, the park seeks to connect with and create the next generation of park visitors, supporters and advocates and invites visitors to join in celebrating its centennial milestone.
