CITY COUNCIL TO DISCUSS FARIA HOUSE USES AT ITS SEPTEMBER 6 MEETING AT PINOLE CITY HALL

The Pinole City Council will discuss potential uses for the Faria House at its September 6 meeting at Pinole City Hall.

The council meeting begins at 5:30 p.m. with a closed session.

The public session, during which the Faria House will be discussed, will commence around 6:45-7 p.m.

Several proponents of establishing a museum in the Faria House spoke at the July 19 council meeting, at which the council approved the city's purchase of the Faria House from the Housing Successor Agency for $30,000.

The value was determined by an appraiser, and considered the highest/best use while also providing a credit for the cost of needed repairs.

There was quite a bit of discussion regarding the potential use of the Faria House, most supporting a museum highlighting the city's history.

There was also a request for consideration of allowing office space use for other community groups.

Because the action on the July 19 agenda was only to consider purchasing the property, the Pinole Historical Society is asking its members and supporters to attend the September 6 council meeting and speak in favor of establishing a city museum in the Faria House.

SEPTEMBER 9 PROGRAM AT KAISER

HISTORY OF THE SAN RAMON VALLEY

Pinole and its Contra Costa County neighbors to the southeast share much history and heritage. At the September 9 Pinole Historical Society program, historian Beverly Lane, a founder of the Museum of San Ramon Valley, will present a program about the history of San Ramon, excerpted from her recently published book, San Ramon Chronicles: Stories of Bygone Days.

The program, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in conference rooms 2A and 2B of the Kaiser Permanente Medical Office Building, 1301 Pinole Valley Road, is FREE to PHS members and the public. Refreshments will be served.

Located at the southern edge of Contra Costa County, San Ramon's Native American, rancho and American past reflects that of the county and the state. Beverly will recount stories about the city which, for many years, featured a street sign that read "Population 100."

The Norris family was the first to purchase land from Californio ranchero Jose Maria Amador and settle in the San Ramon Valley. Memorable dates include 1867 when the school was built, 1891 when the Southern Pacific's San Ramon Branch Line opened, 1911 when a community hall was constructed, 1966 when the I-680 freeway was completed, and 1983, when the city incorporated.

The program will follow the development of the town from pre-historic times, with now-extinct mammal life, touch on the Ohlone and Miwok peoples, and continue through the agricultural period of the 19th and 20th centuries and on to the development of a modern town of 78,000 people.

Today San Ramon is a dynamic suburban city with the Bishop Ranch Business Park in the center and a new city hall. It's no longer a rural outskirts of the Bay Area.

Beverly Lane is an elected director of the East Bay Regional Park District. She served on the first Danville Town Council as a member and mayor.

She was the founding president of the Museum of the San Ramon Valley.

She is a local historian, author, and curator of the Museum of the San Ramon Valley. Her books include San Ramon Valley: Alamo, Danville, San Ramon, "Vintage Danville: 150 Years of Memories," and San Ramon Chronicles: Stories of Bygone Days.

PHS MEMBER APPRECIATION PARTY

Fifty Pinole Historical Society members and guests filled the East Bluff cabana Friday, August 12, for the society's membership appreciation event. They were treated to a delicious catered meal and won valuable raffle prizes. Several were interviewed by videographers Alec Jason and Bob Kopp so their stories about life in Pinole could become part of the society's archives. We thank Steve Lawton for this photo.

PINOLE'S HISTORY IS ON PINOLE COMMUNITY TV

Four historical videos have added to the Pinole Community TV website: www.ci.pinole.ca.us/about/videos.html

- Pinole Historical Society – School Bells and Ink Wells (Old Pinole Schools)
- Pinole Historical Society – The Presidential Rosies (Rosie the Riveters in Washington, D.C.)
- Pinole Historical Society – A Flood of Memories (Floods in Pinole)
- Maritime Contra Costa County – A history of the maritime industry in the county.

These additions bring to 35 the number of Pinole-history videos on the city's website. We thank Dave Snell and Stewart McCale of the PCTV staff for their good work in getting these videos online.

And, we thank Bob Kopp, who recorded many of these events for the society.

Miss one of our history programs on PCTV? Don't despair. The city's website has a dedicated section devoted to Pinole's history on its "Videos Online" page. You can view the numerous PHS programs right on your computer.

Go to the city's website www.ci.pinole.ca.us/about/videos.html and scroll down to PINOLE HISTORY.

You'll find our quarterly programs, interviews, Veterans Day programs, George Vincent's two walking tours of historic downtown Pinole, and the very fine, PCTV-produced, 12-part series based on the society's Historic Walking Tour brochure.

Also there are recorded interviews with several prominent Pinole citizens, including Ed LeFebvre, Charlotte (Fernandez) Shea, former fire chief Alex Clark, and former mayors Jack Meehan and Tom Cutino.

CELEBRATE HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH AT SAN FRANCISCO MARITIME NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month at the San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park with family-friendly Park Ranger programs highlighting Spanish explorers and settlement in the Bay Area.

Discover stories of sea captains and traders, and learn how Spanish, Mexican and Native American cultures interacted with each other.

When: Various dates, from September 18 to October 15, 2016 (see “Programs” below).

Where: San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park.

Admission: Standard ships admission fees apply: Adults, $10. Ages 15 and under (accompanied by an adult), free. Free with National Park passes.

PROGRAMS

Sunday, September 18, 25, and Oct. 2, 3-3:45pm, on Balclutha.
Wheelchair accessible.

Northbound: The Story of Cabrillo and His Venture into the Unknown of Alta California

In 1542, Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, a Spanish explorer, set sail from Baja California northbound to Alta California. He went further north than anyone before him, and though he would not return from this voyage, most of his men would.

The discoveries they made were not only of new lands and people, but also of the extreme and threatening conditions that would challenge mariners sailing the West Coast for hundreds of years to come.

Saturday, September 24 and October 15, 3-3:45pm, on C. A. Thayer.

Skin in the Game: Boots of Spanish leather, Beaver-skin Hats, and Blue Mandarin Robes Trimmed with Sea Otter Fur

Learn about the maritime trade relationships between Spanish and Mexican Alta California, Imperial Russia, Great Britain, and the American Republic between 1812 and 1848.

MORE NEWS FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO MARITIME NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

OCTOBER 1 “FAMILY FUN DAY”

San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park regularly holds free outdoor walks on the first Saturday of every month as part of the “Healthy Parks, Healthy People” program. On October 1, from 10 a.m.-noon, the park is trying something new — a “Family Fun Day” to encourage kids and families to get moving and get active outdoors in the park!

Participants will be led through a maritime-themed day of physical activity, including sail raising, an obstacle course which includes “walk the plank” and “cannonball toss,” relay races, team-building games, and much more. Come ready for teamwork and competition!

Participants should gather behind the Maritime Museum Building (900 Beach Street, San Francisco), under the big clock, along the Aquatic Park Promenade. RSVP is requested, although not required, to lucien\_sonder@nps.gov.

NEW SENSORY TOURS OF HISTORIC SHIPS

San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park is piloting a new program aimed at engaging visitors with visual impairments (but open to all groups) to experience the National Historic Landmark ships at Hyde Street Pier in a new way — through smell, sound, touch, and feel. The new sensory tours are free with regular park admission, but must be scheduled at least two weeks in advance.

On these descriptive narrative tours, rangers guide visitors through a sensory experience on board the 1886 tall sailing ship Balclutha. The public is taken back to a time when sailors risked it all (bringing cargo from San Francisco around the treacherous Cape Horn to Europe) for meager pay. Visitors will feel the large, rough, twisted ropes in their hands as they haul away on the lines, smell greasy meat cooking in the galley, and hear Captain Alfred Durkee speaking (from his journals).

The 60-90 minute tours are geared toward small groups (around 10 people). At the close of each program, visitors will be invited to engage in self-guided tours of the other historic vessels.

To request a sensory tour, please contact Alice Watts at awatts@maritime.org. Although they are free with the park’s regular $10 admission, the tours need to be scheduled at least two weeks in advance.

The park offers assisted listening services on request. Sign Language interpreter services need to be requested at least five days in advance. Please contact the Accessibility Coordinator/Chief of Interpretation by telephone (415-859-6797) or email (safr\_accessibility@nps.gov) for more information.

Flag Holidays

Every year we see more American flags being displayed for community and special events.

On June 14, 1777, the Second Continental Congress passed the Flag Resolution which stated: "Resolved, that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Francis Hopkinson, of New Jersey, a naval flag designer and a signer of the Declaration of Independence, designed the 1777 flag.

The original flag has been modified 26 times and was unchanged with its 48 stars for 47 years, beginning with Arizona's and New Mexico's admittance to the Union on July 4, 1912. On January 3, 1959, when Alaska was admitted to the Union, the number of stars increased to 49. On August 21, 1959, when Hawaii was admitted to the Union, the flag showed 50 stars.

Flag holidays include:

- New Year's Day (Jan. 1)
- Inauguration Day (Jan. 20)
- Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday (Third Monday in January)
- Lincoln's Birthday (Feb. 12)
- Presidents Day (Third Monday in February)
- Washington's Birthday (February 22)
- Easter Sunday
- Army Day (April 6)
- National Day of Prayer (First Thursday in May)
- V-E Day (May 8)
- Mother's Day (Second Sunday in May)
- Peace Officers Memorial Day (May 15; half-staff all day)
- Armed Forces Day (Third Saturday in May)
- Memorial Day (Last Monday in May; half-staff until noon)
- D-Day (June 6)
- Flag Day (June 14)
- Father's Day (Third Sunday in June)
- Independence Day (July 4)
- Korean War Veterans Day (July 27)
- V-J Day (September 2)
- Labor Day (First Monday in September)
- Patriot Day (September 11; half staff all day)
- Constitution Day (September 17)
- Gold Star Mothers Day (September 27)
- Columbus Day (Oct. 12)
- Navy Day (October 27)
- Election Day (First Tuesday in November)
- Veterans Day (Nov. 11)
- Thanksgiving Day (Fourth Thursday in November)
- Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day (December 7; half staff all day)
- Christmas Day (Dec. 25)

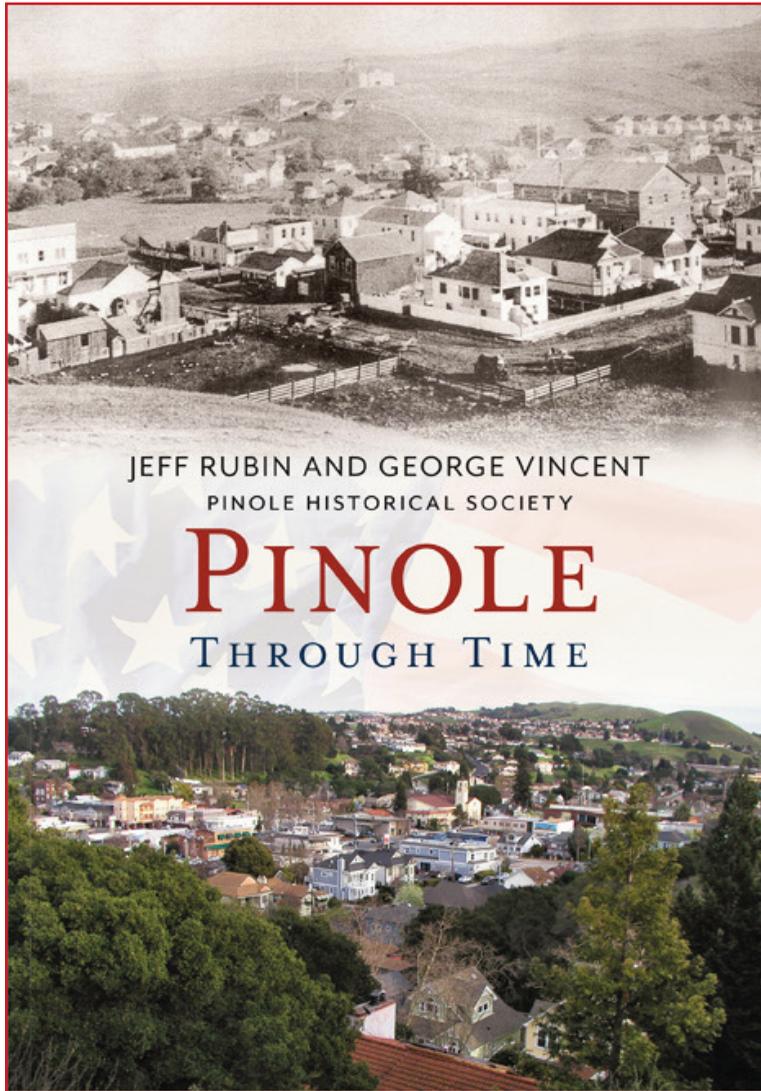

Other flag holidays include Inauguration Day (every four years), election days, state and local holidays, Admission Day, and others proclaimed by the President of the United States.
